

PAVILIONS HOTEL CHRISTCHURCH

Not only a hotel, but a glimpse into the history of New Zealand through the lens of the Horncastle family who own and operate the 4-star property. With artefacts and pieces of "Kiwiana" on display throughout the site, collected over three generations from the North and South Islands, the Horncastle's have curated a hotel that offers relaxing accommodation, personable and attentive service, delicious regional fare and cultural immersion.

With ninety-two rooms, suites, apartments and cottages, Pavilions Hotel Christchurch is a dynamic social hub where guests and visitors can work, relax, network and dine. Where you'll be welcomed like family and remembered as friends.

With a number of conference rooms and meeting areas available and with an experienced and dedicated events team trained to deal with your individual requirements, you can guarantee we will make your conference or event a success.
